To

ALL OFFICERS WHO HAVE ACCEPTED SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNTS AS SECURITY DEPOSITS.

Sir,

No. L. Dis. T4-230-990—48-49. After security is released by the pledges when it is no longer required for the purpose, in addition to the necessary intimation to the treasury the fact of cancellation after recording the same in the PassBook, the several pledgees are requested to kindly furnish to this office in the intimation letter itself, the correct address of the depositors to facilitate this office to issue them notices under S. B. Rule 77, to close the account as they cannot be treated as ordinary deposit and that any further interest would not accrue.
